Even Now, I Know (John 11:22)

Tony Mauck · John 11:21–22

INTRODUCTION

- I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, so that you may believe.
- I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me shall live even if he dies. There's our hope.
- Lord, if you would have been here, my brother would not have died. That was an expression of confidence in Jesus, in his ability.

1 Even Now: Convictions Squarely Placed Upon Jesus

Hebrews 3:6; Revelation 2; Psalm 73

- In the midst of pain, in the midst of turmoil and trouble and trial, she utters the words, even now.
- Our convictions must be squarely placed upon Jesus even in our darkest moments. He alone is your hope.
- If you hold fast your confidence and the boast of your hope firm to the end.
- When my thoughts and my conduct are not what they should have been, it is always because I have lost sight of the king.
- I must rely on and/or return to that which is solid, reliable, trustworthy, and dependable in the midst of every storm of life.
- When I came to the sanctuary of God, then I perceived their end. How that they are destroyed in a moment.

2 I Know: The King Reigns

Psalm 46:1–2; Isaiah 43:2–3; 1 Peter 1:24–25

- Even now, in the midst of our pain, the king reigns.
- God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
- When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched, nor will the flame burn you.
- From my distress I called upon the Lord, and the Lord answered me, and he set me in a large place.
- The king reigns, and his word is true and reliable.
- I am with you always, even unto the end of the age.

THE CHALLENGE

Won't you sign on to be a disciple of Jesus while there's time?
