His Heart With Us

Tony Mauck · Jeremiah 15:1–6

INTRODUCTION

- It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for my holy name.
- Even though Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, my heart would not be with this people.
- Our God is extremely patient. He puts up with a lot of junk from those who should know better, including us.

1 The Certainty of Judgment, and Why Not Yet?

Jeremiah 7:4; 2 Peter 3:4–18; 2 Corinthians 6:1

- Do not trust in deceptive words, Israel. The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord.
- Judgment is certain. It hasn't happened yet, but when it comes, people are going to think it's not coming. It's going to come like a thief.
- What sort of people ought you to be in all holy conduct and godliness.
- Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, and you be the people that you ought to be.
- What does it mean to grow in grace? That means we continue the walk or the progress of working together with God.
- This is a knowledge of what that message means in the way that I think, the things that I do, the things that I say, and the way that I live.

2 What Manner of Persons Ought We to Be?

2 Corinthians 6:16–7:1; Romans 8:18–22

- God's heart is not with you. What we want to accomplish is for God's heart to be with us.
- One of the greater tragedies of our time is people who believe that God's heart is with them. And they're wrong about that.
- I will dwell in them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
- They are going to be my people by choice. And thus the question is, who are you going to choose to be?
- We are the temple of the living God. Cleanse yourself from all defilement of flesh and spirit.
- The sufferings of this present time are not to be compared to the glory that will be revealed in us.
